

Emotional Clearing Workshop

Heal your relationships and restore your health while recoding your DNA!

Why is it that the need to heal and clear emotionally seems to be a priority for so many people now? Perhaps it is because we are hurting in ways and to a degree like never before with incurable illnesses, emotional pain and blocks to abundance that tear our families apart. With little or no hope of true and lasting healing we succumb to the pain and look for ways to medicate in order to survive. But it doesn't have to be that way. There are tools that are being given to us now that were designated for use at this time.

Join Jelaila to experience first hand the healing power of the multidimensional, compassion-based techniques and concepts provided by the 7 Stages of Emotional Clearing, and the 7 Keys of Compassion.

What you will learn in this workshop:

- How to navigate the stages of emotional clearing.
- How to effectively use the 7 Keys of Compassion, incorporating them into your daily life so that you can quickly clear conflicts and keep your relationships emotionally clean and peaceful.

What you will gain from this workshop:

- Hands on experience in clearing a health, relationship or money block. Your situation and life will change after this workshop!

Participant's comments from taking this workshop:

I couldn't believe how quickly my fibromyalgia disappeared after using the emotional clearing techniques you taught us. It had been so bad I couldn't bear to be touched around my upper back and shoulders. How wonderful to be able to hug my husband and children again! —Sharon L.

I came to the workshop as a last ditch effort to find a solution to why my real estate career had stalled. Just about every sale in the last 9 months had fallen through. Once I understood the block that was causing this, I was able to clear it. Less than a week after I returned home, I received a $1,000,000 listing... and it sold! I can't thank you enough. —Julie G.
